BIO

Idina Menzel is a powerhouse multi-hyphenate: a singer, an actress in film and TV, a songwriter, a Broadway star, and a philanthropist. She rose to fame for her role as Maureen in the popular Broadway musical Rent, and her career took off when she won a Tony Award for her role as Elphaba, the Wicked Witch of the West, in the smash musical Wicked. Her voice can be heard as Elsa in Disney's Oscar® winning Frozen, the second highest grossing animated films of all time, with more than $1.2 billion in worldwide box office revenue. The film's song "Let It Go," voiced by Menzel, became an instant international phenomenon, winning the Oscar® for Best Original Song -- where Menzel performed it at the ceremony -- and the Grammy® Award for Best Song Written for Visual Media. The track reached #5 on the Billboard Hot 100, making Menzel the first artist with both a Billboard Top 10 hit and a Tony Award for acting.

Menzel returned to her starring role as Jodi in the West Coast premiere of Joshua Harmon's Skintight in September 2019; the show is a follow up to the off-Broadway performance that opened to rave reviews at Roundabout Theatre Company. The fall also saw her reprise her leading role as Elsa in the highly anticipated release of Disney's Frozen 2, which broke records to become the highest grossing animated movie of all time, as well as join Adam Sandler in the Safdie Brothers' critically acclaimed and Film Independent Spirit Award-winning A24 film Uncut Gems. Menzel was most recently seen in Amazon Studios' smash hit Cinderella, for which she wrote and sang the song "Dream Girl," which was shortlisted for the Academy Awards' Best Song category.
