

MILA MIRANDA

A vision in her heart for all the world to see. Mila brings a fresh perspective to electro-pop music engaging an international audience.

BIO

Singer, Songwriter, Producer Electro-pop artist Mila Miranda born of Trujillo, Peru began her career as a Los Angeles artist in 2017 with her first single “Don’t Worry My Friend”. Having accomplished her first goal of an all-English, American single, she went on to write and produce “Fashion Fame Money”, “Write Me a Letter”, and “Can I See You Tonight”.

Upon the release of “Don’t Worry My Friend” the single hit 46K streams and 19k followers in 140 cities around the world on Spotify. Mila began debuting her live shows featured in venues in Orange County and Los Angeles County. Her music, style, and live approach as well as meticulously choreographed presentations were well received and seen as refreshing in the Southern California music performance scene.

Mila went on to merge her passion for her culture with her work fusing Latin and American pop-culture into her lyrics and ultimately created her first full album “Famosa”. The album features another single, remastered “What Happened to You”, along with eight other songs all written, performed, and produced by Mila. The full album includes this original single along with “Latin Project” both of which are being well received internationally with radio play, and streaming from locations such as Chile, Argentina, Spain, The United States, and Canada.

MILA MIRANDA

Mila is inspired by the feeling of the life of the party. Her album features songs like “Saturday Night” & “Red Paper” that reflect on the drama in life, with a positive outcome. She is a free spirit with an upbeat attitude who loves 80’s drum beats and bringing synthesizer sounds into her music. Her music is meant to bring movement, dancing, and inspiration to her followers. She believes that no matter what life throws at you when you stay positive, you are going to be okay. Anyone can learn to do anything they want to do in this life as long as they are willing to put in some work.
