

PUSSYRIOT

BIO

Conceptual artist and activist Nadya Tolokonnikova is the founding member of Pussy Riot, a global feminist protest art movement. Today, hundreds of people identify as a part of Pussy Riot community.

She was sentenced in 2012 to 2 years' imprisonment following an anti-Putin performance. Went through a hunger strike protesting savage prison conditions and ended up being sent far away to a Siberian penal colony, where she managed though to maintain her artistic activity and with her prison punk band she made a tour around Siberian labor camps. Published a book "Read and riot: Pussy Riot's guide to activism."

Pussy Riot's Punk-prayer ("feminist, explicitly anti-Putin, protesting the banning of gay pride and the Orthodox church's support of the president") sent waves through Russian media, and they've collaborated with Banksy on his Dismaland exhibition, been endorsed by Marina Abramovic and Ai Weiwei, created an immersive experience in Saatchi gallery in London, and created a humanitarian NFT project with over $7 million in value.

Co-founder of independent news service and media outlet, Mediazona. Has spoken before the US Congress, British Parliament, European Parliament, appeared as herself on season 3 of House of Cards, performed at Banksy's Dismaland exhibition.

Pussy Riot stands for gender fluidity, inclusivity, matriarchy, love, laughter, decentralization, anarchy, and anti-authoritarianism.
