

SIZZY ROCKET

Sizzy Rocket became the sneering face of the 21st-century underground scene thanks to her viral 2016 electro-clash seducer - "Bestie" - an unapologetically profane paean about turning your BFF into one with benefits. It's easy to hear her corrupting influence on songs she's penned for artists like Blu DeTiger, Noah Cyrus, & Uffie. Also a seasoned touring artist, she has opened as direct support for Alice Glass, Shamir, KITTEN, Lauren Sanderson, GIRLI, Imagine Dragons, and Boyfriend, and has performed at PRIDE festivals across the US. Sizzy challenges what it means to be a pop artist in 2023 with her DIY approach, poetic lyricism and genre-blending musicality that takes influence from punk, hip-hop, and beyond. She released her sophomore album, Grrrl, in summer 2019 and self-booked a sold out US tour with TV star chloe mk as support. Her third studio album ANARCHY brought fans and friends together for a unique virtual performance art experience, live from an abandoned theme park. The voyeuristic sex tape music video for single "Smells Like Sex" received an award from Playboy and was exhibited at Miami Art Week in 2021. Her covers mixtape, TOO YOUNG TO DIE, was released to her ravenous cult fanbase via text message and accompanied by a national headlining tour with Troi Irons as support. With her newest fourth studio album, Live Laugh Love, featuring contributions by VINCINT and super producer Fernando Garibay, it's clear that Sizzy Rocket is poised for stardom... and she's just getting started.
